

St. Mary Romanian Festival

St. Mary Romanian Orthodox Cathedral, a mainstay of Cleveland's West Park community, will hold a widely-publicized Romanian Festival August 19-21, 2011 on the church grounds. Thousands of Clevelanders will have the unique chance to become immersed in Romanian culture without having to travel thousands of miles to the country itself. Our guests will enjoy good food, live entertainment, a festival of arts, and much, much more.

August 19 – 21, 2011

Friday: 4:30 pm – 11 pm

Saturday: 2 pm – 11pm

Sunday: 12 pm – 10pm

Harmonia folk band (Cleveland)

Delicious ethnic foods
homemade pastries
Romanian beer and wines

Rapsodia Carpatilor Orchestra (Chicago)

Dance groups all weekend

Vendors, church/museum tours, parade of costumes, much more!

Our Cathedral, founded in 1904, is the oldest Romanian Orthodox parish in the United States. In Cleveland's West Park community, it is well-known for its masterfully-executed mural icons, its ethnic museum, its traditional Christmas craft shows, and especially for the excellent meals served to the community throughout the year at its very popular fish fries, weddings, and other catered events.